DAY 2: Full-day tour of the Pyramids, Sphinx, and Egyptian Museum

Breakfast at the hotel

Pick-up from the hotel and transfer by air-conditioned vehicle with an English-speaking Egyptologist to the Giza Necropolis.

The Giza Pyramid Complex includes the Great Pyramid of Giza, the Pyramid of Khafre, and the Pyramid of Menkaure, along with their associated pyramid complexes and the Great Sphinx of Giza. All were built during the Fourth Dynasty of the Old Kingdom of Ancient Egypt. The site also includes several cemeteries and the remains of a worker's village.

The Sphinx dates from the reign of King Khafre; during the New Kingdom, Amenhotep II dedicated a new temple to Hauron-Haremakhet, and this structure was added

Visit the Papyrus Institute, perfume factory, and cotton shop on by later rulers.

Visit the Egyptian Museum The museum exhibits collections ranging from the pre-historic era to the Greco-Roman period. It has 107 halls, and the ground floor houses huge statues. The museum also comprises a photography section and a large library

DAY 3: Day tour to Alexandria

Breakfast at the hotel

Transfer from the Cairo hotel and drive for 2 hours and 30 minutes to Alexandria.

Visit the Catacomb of Kom el Shouqafa; it is 30 m high and built from Aswan pink granite. The Pompeii Column is thought to have been present from the people of Alexandria to Emperor Diocletian. Most of the remains found around the column can be seen at the Greco-Roman Museum. At the top of the hill lies the entrance to the Kom al-Shuqafa Catacombs, dating from the first and second centuries. They were discovered by chance at the beginning of the 20th century.

Visit Pompey's Pillar, which is an approximately 25-meter-long red Aswan granite column with a circumference of 9 meters and was constructed in honor of Emperor Diocletian. It was once a magnificent structure rivaling the Soma and the Caesarism.

Photo stop from outside for Qaitbay Fort: It is a 15th-century Islamic fortress built to protect the city from invading Crusaders. The Qaitbay Citadel is located in the northeast part of Pharos Island, on the exact spot that was once home to the famous lighthouse of Alexandria. The Citadel was originally established by Sultan Al-Ashraf Sayf al-Din Qa'it Bay in 1544 as a fortress.

Visit the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, which is dedicated to recapturing the spirit of openness and scholarship of the original Bibliotheca Alexandrina.

Breakfast at the hotel and check-out

Transfer to Cairo airport to board the flight to Aswan

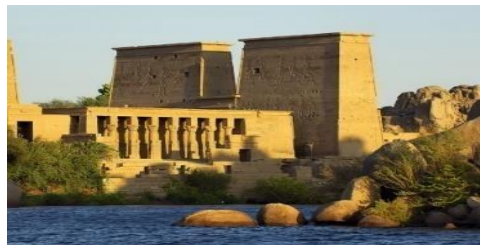

Arrive in Aswan, pick up from the airport and transfer by air-conditioned vehicle with English-speaking Egyptologist to start your journey in Aswan

High Dam is an engineering miracle built in 1960 to protect Egypt from annual floods from the Nile, It contains 18 times the material used in the Great Pyramid of Cheops. The dam is 11,811 feet long, 3215 feet thick at the base, and 364 feet tall. Today it provides irrigation and electricity for the whole of Egypt, together with the old Aswan Dam.

Transfer by car and then by motorboat to Agilika Island, where Philae Temple is situated.

The Philae Temple was dismantled and reassembled (on Agilika Island, about 550 meters from its original home on Philae Island) in the wake of the High Dam. The temple, dedicated to the goddess Isis, is in a beautiful setting that has been landscaped to match its original site. Its various shrines and sanctuaries, which include The Vestibule of Nectanebos I, which is used as the entrance to the island, the Temple of the Emperor Hadrian, a Temple of Hathor, and Trajan's Kiosk (Pharaoh), Bed), a birth house and two pylons celebrate all the deities associated with the legend of Isis and Osiris.
