Mount Abu is a famous pilgrimage site for both Hindus and Jains and is visited by many pilgrims from all over the world. The place is also noted for its spellbinding natural beauty. Mount Abu is also referred to as “An Oasis in the Desert” for the fact that it is the point from which several streams, waterfalls and lakes originate. The area was leased to the British Empire by the Maharaja of Sirohi. Mount Abu was also a preferred summer destination among the British rulers. Apart from this, mythological tales about Mount Abu state that it is the home to millions of Hindu gods and goddesses. This place was also home to many saints and sages of the past era.

Later, proceed for city tour of Mount Abu. The Dilwara Jain Temple is one of the most famous and beautiful Jain temples in the world. The architecture and stone carvings are something noteworthy. The interior decoration of the temple highlights the architectural brilliance and grandeur of human artisanship. These temples were built in the period between 11th and 13th centuries A.D. The ornamental details carved out of marble on the ceilings and on the pillars are extremely beautiful. As per the history of the place, it is said that the marble stones that were used in making the temple were transported on elephant backs from the Arasoori Hills. Dilwara Temple is a pious Jain pilgrimage centre. The temple is divided into five main parts, and each part of the temple is dedicated to five Jain Tirthankaras:

Achalgarh Fort stands as a testimony to the medieval era. Rana Kumbha commissioned the fort. It is situated 8 kilometers from the town and is well connected by road. The battlement walls surround the Achalgarh fort on all its sides. The fort is situated on top of a mountain peak. Within the walls, one will find fortresses and temples.

Achaleshwar Temple has a Nandi (bull), which is made up of five metals, which are gold, silver, copper, brass, and zinc, and weighs more than 4 tons. Nakki Lake is an important place of tourist interest on Mount Abu. The lake forms the “Heart of Mount Abu.”. Nakki Lake derives its name from the famous mythological story that lies behind the creation of this lake. It is said that Devtas(the gods) had dug this lake in the center of Mount Abu using their nails, or nakh. This lake is the only artificial lake in India that is situated at an altitude of 1220 meters above sea level. The lake is situated within walking distance of the center of the town. The location of Nakki Lake amidst the mountains, gardens, and rock formations makes it all the more interesting.

As capital of the old Mewar State, it was the only Rajput stronghold to uphold its Hindu allegiance in the face of Muslim invasion. This fairy-tale city, with its marble palaces and lakes surrounded by a ring of hills, was founded by Maharana Udai Singh in 1559. The city is dominated by the massive City Palace, which overlooks Lake Pichola with its romantic island palaces. Picturesque havelis, ghats and temples line the lake front, with the lively bazaars of the old walled city stretching behind them.
