ADI KAILASH OM PARVAT YATRA FAQs:

Q: What will be the expected temperature and weather in Adi kailash and Om Parvat?

A : Day temperature will hover around 08 to 18 degree Celsius, while night temperature can go down to -05 and at some places more.

Q: Is Kailash Mansarovar and Adi Kailash same or different destination?

A: Adi Kailash and Kailash Mansarovar are different destination, but both are Panch Kailash. Adi Kailash is in Indian Himalayas and Kailash Mansarovar is in Tibet. Both are holy mountains.

Q: Roads remains open in winter?

A: Due to the heavy snow fall, inner line permit process is closed by administration in winter.

Q: What is Om Parvat actually?

A: It's a natural shape of Om on snowcapped mountain. According to Hindu scripture, it's a sign of high energy and creation.

Q: Is it off-road drive or smooth one ?

A: From Kathgodam to Dharchula, it's well-connected road but from Dharchula to Adi Kailash and Om Parvat totally offroad. We used 4/4 transport for particular stretch.

Q: What is AMS (Acute Mountain Sickness)?

A: AMS is result of sudden exposure to reduced air pressure and lower oxygen level at high altitude. General symptoms are Headache, Fatigue, Nausea, and Loss of appetite, sleeplessness, heavy breathing. Descending down and inhaling oxygen can cure it faster. That is why we recommend to spend at least two days in Leh, so that you get some time to acclimatize.

Q: What are the precautions for photography gears?

A: You don't need to worry much about the professional gears much, they are built to sustain such extreme weathers. For basic gears, just keep that battery at warm places.

Q: I had no time to prepare, can I buy warm clothes in Dharchula/Pithoragarh?

A: No, we suggest you buy it at home location and try it out couple of times.

Q: Is there some trekking involved in this?

A: Not too much but while visit Gauri Kund and Parvati sarovar then we have to do 6km trek .

Q: I have medical history related to breathing, blood pressure or anything significant, Can I travel at such height and low temperature?

A: Please consult your doctor for the same.
