Seasons / golf clubs / hotels

Usually seasons are considered as follows:

Low season: june-july-august + mid-november to end of february

High season: march-april-may and september to mid-november seasons for hotel rates and golf rates may not coincide and they are different if staying in Málaga city though or outside. In order to keep rates in a reasonable level and guarantee guests some city life, we suggest staying in Málaga or nearest coast areas though marbella can be also nice in mid-season (october and spring).
